WEEQUAHIC H.S. 1992

Principal: Richard Williams

Farewell To The Senior Class

During your senior year at Weequahic High School, you have acted as fine examples for our underclassmen.

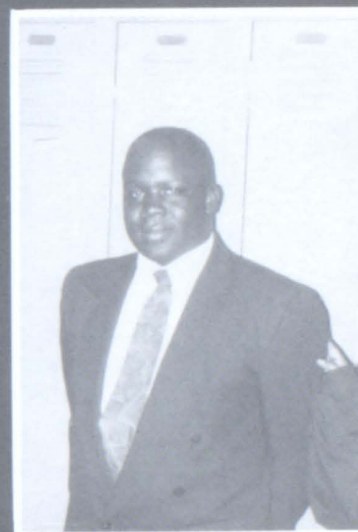

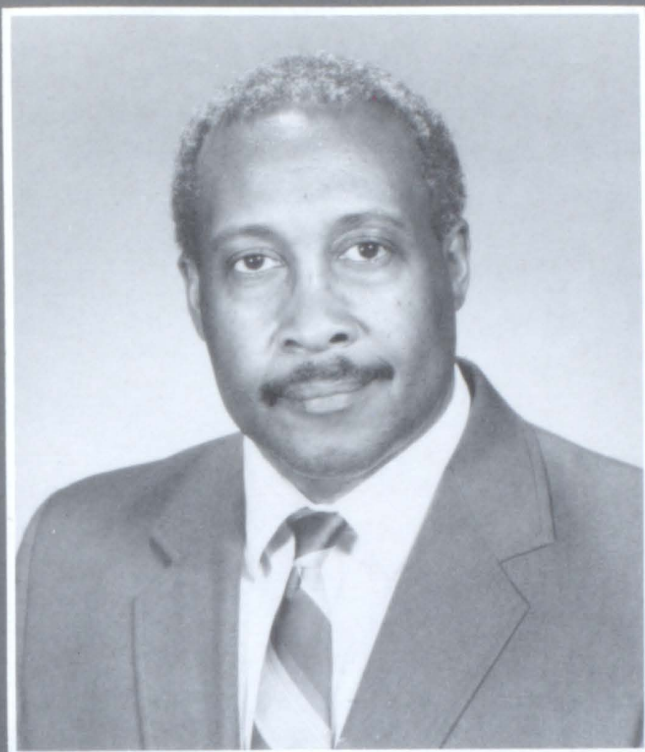

You have accepted your roles as school leaders with dignity and sincerity, realizing the seriousness of your responsibility.

On behalf of Weequahic High School, I appreciate your efforts.

It is now time to proceed with greater goals and, therefore, greater responsibilities. I know you will proceed wisely, based upon the knowledge gained during your school years.

I wish you good luck in all that you do!

Congratulations Graduates Of The Class Of 1992!

Your struggle to reach this milestone in your life is over, but the road ahead awaits you with different types of struggles and demands. And as you have struggled, so have your parents, grandparents and others who have gone before you struggles, with the knowledge that our race is judged by the best we have been able to produce, not the worst. (Johnson)

You have been equipped with the necessary weapons and you have been prepared to fight any battle that you may come up against.

I only ask, and pray, that you keep your head about you at all times; that you reach deep within yourselves to go that extra mile when needed; and that you at all times remember that you are representing the administration, faculty and staff of Weequahic High School in all that you do, wherever you may be.

My wishes for a bright future, and my prayers, go with you.

Sincerely,

Norma Fair Brown

Vice-Principal

Norma Brown

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of '92

The world is shrinking. Each of you must prepare to compete in a "global world". Therefore, to this end remember, "Success is the natural outcome of clear goals and hard work". Good luck to you and your future.

Catherine Murphy

Farewell To The Class Of 1992

Congratulations on attaining this moment of success!

You have worked hard, overcome obstacles, enjoyed laughter and friendship, suffered through tears and disappointment, and here you are - about to embark on what I hope will be a life filled with promise, happiness and achievement.

Continue to persevere, try with every ounce of your courage and strength, and I know you will succeed.

I am very proud of you.

Jill Watkins

An Interview With Vice-Principal Edward H. Gadson

On November 26, 1991, Vice-Principal E.H. Gadson was interviewed by the Senior Class President, Mrs. Jennifer Crossley. Mr. Gadson stated that he was in charge of testing: HPPJ; CTBP; Standard A; Mid-Term and Final Exams, and also many State Reports.

When asked how he viewed his move after 16 1/2 years at Barringer High, to Weequahic, Mr. Gadson stated that he preferred Secondary Schools to Elementary, and while he felt a sort of resentment from Administration, Co-workers and students because he did not know his area, he intended to take it slow.

Mr. Gadson stated his desire to work on improving the physical cleanliness of the building, the availability of much needed supplies, to improve the levels of instruction and to raise the proficiency of the student body.

Mr. Gadson hopes the Graduating Class of 1992 develops a sense of self-esteem and that they carry it forward the remainder of their lives.

Niki and Tysea ready for June.

On a cold, windy January morning, the class of June 1990 presented to the Weequahic High School family, their class gift: a beautiful granite and brick sign. The class raised money by selling small gift items, candy, flowers and participated in many bake sales. The ingenious class sold shamrocks on St. Patrick's Day, Valentine's hearts of February 14th and sponsored several basketball games: Seniors vs. the U.S. Army, Seniors vs. Juniors, Seniors vs. Faculty!!

All in all, while having fun, monies were raised by the Class to leave this beautiful gift to their Alma Mater.

The following pictures were taken on the day of the unveiling. Mrs. Carole A. Graves, President of the Newark Teachers Union, came for the Unveiling and, Mr. Burney Adams, representing South Ward Councilman Donald Bradley, spoke in response to the presentation.

Members of the Senior Class '90 Executive Board: Alkiem Cooley, Keith Johnson, Marquis Owens, Robert Bradley and Jerrard Brown, along with Principal Richard Williams are happy the sign is finally up for all to see. The sign is located on Chancellor Ave. and Aldine Street.
